

Carroll Manor Elementary School Staff Biography

Casey Day-Kells Reading Specialist

Casey Day-Kells received her Bachelor's Degree from Shepherd College in Elementary Education and her Master's in Curriculum and Instruction: Reading Specialization from Hood College. She has taught K, 1, 2, 4, and 5th grades prior to becoming the reading specialist at CMES, where she has been for the last 7 years. She also teaches graduate reading courses at Hood College.

At home, she lives with her husband, Ashley, who is a meteorologist, and her children Ben, 13, and Maddie, 10. She also has two dogs, Murphy and Judy, and two cats, Pennie and Nimbus. She enjoys reading, working in the garden, and spending time with her family.